Peek sworn into the Wyo. Air Guard by father

CHEYENNE. – Capt. Martin Peek, a member of the Wyoming Army National Guard, swore in his son, David C. Peek, 18, of Cheyenne, Wyo., as the newest member of the Wyoming Air National Guard's 153rd Communications Flight, June 16.

Airman Peek enlisted under a program which will provide 100 percent of tuition to in-state colleges and universities, the Montgomery G.I. Bill, Montgomery G.I. Bill Kicker and an enlistment bonus. He will be attending the College of Engineering at the University of Wyoming in the fall, using the Wyoming National Guard's 100 percent tuition paid program.

"I am very proud of my son and consider it an honor to be able to swear him into the service," Capt. Peek said. "David is continuing our family's rich military history."

After attending Air Force Basic Training and Communications - Computer Systems Control Technical School, Airman Peek will go on to his assignment in the 153rd Airlift Wing. He will monitor and control the performance of networks and communications on computer systems.
